

I support this petition and request FCC maintain Morse requirements for General and Extra class licenses. I would also urge FCC to increase the level of difficulty of the written questions for the Extra class license. A thirty day waiting period should be required between re-testing at VE sessions.